

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the Southern District of West Virginia

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

Case No.: 2:18-cr-00034

PHYLLIS DOTY,

Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S SECOND MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO SELF-REPORT

Comes now counsel for Defendant Phyllis Doty and moves the Court to allow her to self-report directly to the institution to which she is assigned. In the Court's directive, Mrs. Doty was allowed to self-report. Mrs. Doty was further directed that if she did not receive notice directing her to report to a particular institution that she was to self-report to the U.S. Marshall in Charleston by 2 p.m. on April 1, 2019, ECF No. 175. Previously an earlier version of this motion was granted, see ECF No. 180, 184.

As of this date Mrs. Doty still has not received any notice from the Federal Bureau of Prisons. She continues to seek the benefits of self-reporting as opposed to transportation in custody from jail confinement.

Wherefore, Mrs. Doty by her counsel moves the Court to order that she be allowed to self-report from her home directly to the institution assigned on the date and time the notice directs.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/James M. Cagle
